PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Results-driven Full-Stack Web Developer with hands-on project experience building web applications using Node.js, Express, MySQL, and vanilla JavaScript. Combines a strong backend foundation with a precise, responsive frontend approach - HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React. Academic background in Accounting (B.Sc.) adds a unique perspective on data-driven applications. Udacity-certified Front-End Developer. Seeking remote opportunities to contribute clean, production-ready code to ambitious teams worldwide.

PROJECTS

VisionX - Product Landing Page²⁰²²

Personal Project

- Built a modern single-page marketing site for a fictional tech product using semantic HTML, CSS, and vanilla JavaScript with zero dependencies.
- Implemented smooth-scroll navigation, CSS animations, and a fully responsive mobile-first layout using a custom grid system.

WeatherZip - City Weather by ZIP Code²⁰²²

Personal Project

- Developed a server-side Express.js app returning real-time weather data via a third-party API for any US ZIP code input.
- Handled API error states gracefully; delivered a clean, responsive UI with Node.js routing and server-side rendering.

The Awesome Calendar - Arabic RTL Attendance Tracker²⁰²⁴

Personal Project

- Built a fully RTL Arabic employee attendance tracker in vanilla HTML/CSS/JS — featuring a live progress bar, status badges, Friday toggle, and select-all control.
- Delivered a fully responsive layout with custom breakpoints and smooth CSS animations, compatible across all modern browsers.
